All,

It is CBP's and OPA's policy to treat everyone with whom we interact with dignity and respect. Whether an illegal alien or alleged (or even convicted) criminal, all are human, and should be treated humanely.

In our job as communicators, we must reinforce that message in every form of communication, from social media to the web, from print to broadcast media, we must guard against using language that detracts from that inherent dignity and respect.

I understand that social media is far more conversational than traditional media and often uses creative word play to attract readers or followers, or better, re-tweets of our messages. However, this is where we need to ensure we're not making light of an individuals' circumstance. I cite as an example the use of 'catch of the day' which is appropriate for fish, or substances interdicted, but not in reference to people.

There is no way to create a list of appropriate or inappropriate terms, so I rely on your judgment as PAOs to ensure we maintain the highest standards in all our forms of communication.

Very respectfully,

This is the result of the Nation Dog Day effort that the IPT work hard on. Thank you (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) for the great work! Let's be mindful of the takeaways below. And keep in mind, animals sell!

Thank you,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I pulled some stats from the K9 IPT effort (attached)

Key take aways:

The videos performed very strongly, over 4000 views of the videos on Twitter, more than 10,000 views on Instagram

Lessons learned: One video did not get posted to Twitter as it was too large a file. Twitter can only take a 15MB size video file. These videos were not uploaded to YouTube so there was not an alternative way to post. Request smaller compressed video files for the future.

Great effort.

Fantastic content.

8/27/17 10:00	https://www.instagcustomsbo	lCYMI: CBP officers in Otay Mesa rescued an illegally-trafficked tiger cub from a traveler who attempted to bring it into California from Mexico this week. On August 23 an 18-year-old man arrived at the port of entry driving a 2017 Chevy Camaro, with a 21-year-old man in the passenger seat. The CBP officer conducting the inspection referred the vehicle and occupants for further inspection. Officers searched the vehicle and discovered the tiger cub lying on the floor of the front passenger side. The tiger cub was removed from the vehicle and placed in an animal crate until agents from the @USFWS responded to the border crossing. The driver was arrested and later transported to Metropolitan Correctional Center to await arraignment. Agents from U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service took custody of the tiger cub and are working with the @SanDiegoZoo Global to ensure its well-being. We don't just #KeepAmericaSafe, we #ProtectWildlife as well. #CBP	https://www.instagram.c

8/27/17 10:00	https //www instagcustomsbo	lCYMI: CBP officers in Otay Mesa rescued an illegally-trafficked tiger cub from a traveler who attempted to bring it into California from Mexico this week. On August 23 an 18-year-old man arrived at the port of entry driving a 2017 Chevy Camaro, with a 21-year-old man in the passenger seat. The CBP officer conducting the inspection referred the vehicle and occupants for further inspection. Officers searched the vehicle and discovered the tiger cub lying on the floor of the front passenger side. The tiger cub was removed from the vehicle and placed in an animal crate until agents from the @USFWS responded to the border crossing. The driver was arrested and later transported to Metropolitan Correctional Center to await arraignment. Agents from U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service took custody of the tiger cub and are working with the @SanDiegoZoo Global to ensure its well-being. We don't just #KeepAmericaSafe, we #ProtectWildlife as well. #CBP	https //www instagram c

AC Friel,

Attached is what I was able to find for the past 6 months. Please have a look and see if this is what he' s looking for. If he can give me the example of what ICE had that would be helpful.

Thanks.

Hey (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) I'm adding (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) here to follow up with you. They have been researching and will be providing you some source material shortly.

Michael:

Just a friendly reminder to please put me in touch with someone on your staff who can assist with a few paragraphs on C1's media exposure.

Can provide a rather poor example of what ICE has produced, but in essence, need to show in a concise but detailed way that C1's national and social media presence makes him the defacto government public representative of the Wall, Travel Ban, Counter-Border Immigration, etc.

If someone can be available early Monday morning that would be greatly appreciated. Our draft document has to be into OPR review by Thursday. Media section is tied into several components of the overall tasking.

Thank you and have a great weekend.

Good Evening [redacted]-

Sorry to intrude. Wanted to see if I could reserve a few minutes after the 0830 brief Friday to discuss a tasking I am working (b) (5) Also wanted to bounce off some ideas related to the tracking of his overall media exposure.

Promise not to take up much time. Hoping you can point me to the right resources in your office.

I would suggest from April 17-May 29.

I chose that date because prior to that we were highlighting holiday travel (Easter and Spring Break).

Will that work?

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

What time frame prior to May 29 are you looking for?

Also CBP and Travel will provide skewed results for twitter, because #CBP will relate to all posts. I will look for Travel posts, but not all have the "key words" travel, so I will try to pull all that is relevant.

Thanks.

Importance: High

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I attended the Editorial Board Meeting, yesterday, and presented the Travel Teams progress for Summer Travel. Mike asked that we gather stats to establish benchmarks ahead of our big summer travel push.

Specifically he asked for the following information in three segments Before Memorial Day (May 29), Between May 30 and July 4 and July 5- Sept. 4.

 VOCUS stats with key words related to CBP + Summer Travel.

 Social Media stats with the same key words.

 Website hits (Comms and Outreach) on CBP.GOV/Travel

Please let Jen and I know if you have any questions or if you need assistance. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) was in attendance and may also be able to offer any clarifications.

Thanks,

Dear Mr. Evers:

As agreed to in American Oversight v. U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Case No. 1: 18-cv-01337, this is the sixth interim response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), on behalf of American Oversight, in which you are seeking:

2.) All electronic mail containing the word "hashtag" and any of the following words or phrases:

3.) All electronic mail containing any hashtags ("#") and any of the following words or phrases:

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

d. Aliens
e. Felon
f. Felons
g. Criminal
h. Criminals

A search of CBP databases has identified records responsive to your request, 972 pages of which are now being produced.

CBP has determined that eight (8) pages of the records are partially releasable, pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5), (b)(7)(E), (b)(6), and (b)(7)(C). and 964 pages have been withheld in full pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5), (b)(7)(E), (b)(6), and (b)(7)(C).

Uploaded to your FOIAonline account are 972 pages with certain information withheld as described below:

FOIA Exemption (b)(5) exempts from disclosure those inter- or intra-agency documents that are normally privileged in the civil discovery context. The three most frequently invoked privileges are the deliberative process privilege, the attorney work-product privilege, and the attorney-client privilege. After carefully reviewing the responsive documents, I have determined that portions of the responsive documents qualify for protection under the Deliberative Process Privilege: The types of records withheld under this privilege may include Issue Papers, briefings, and expressions of candid opinions, the release of which would discourage or inhibit the free and frank exchange of information among agency personnel.

FOIA Exemption (b)(6) exempts from disclosure personnel or medical files and similar files the release of which would cause a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This requires a balancing of the public's right to disclosure against the individual's right privacy. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld may consist of names, email address, and phone numbers. The privacy interests of the individuals in the records you have requested outweigh any minimal public interest in disclosure of the information. Any private interest you may have in that information does not factor into the aforementioned balancing test.

FOIA Exemption (b)(7)(C) protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes that could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This exemption takes particular note of the strong interests of individuals, whether they are suspects, witnesses, or investigators, in not being unwarrantably associated with alleged criminal activity. That interest extends to persons who are not only the subjects of the investigation, but those who may have their privacy invaded by having their identities and information about them revealed in connection with an investigation. Based upon the traditional recognition of strong privacy interest in law enforcement records, categorical withholding of information that identifies third parties in law enforcement records is ordinarily appropriate.

FOIA Exemption (b)(7)(E) protects records compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which would disclose techniques and/or procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. CBP has determined that disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law.

This completes CBP's sixth interim response to your request. If you have questions or concerns regarding this interim response, you may contact Assistant United States Attorney Denise M. Clark at (202) 252-6605.

Please notate file number CBP-2018-005705 on any future correspondence to CBP related to this request.

Sincerely,

Jodi Drengson

American Oversight v. DHS
First Interim Release

Dear Ms. Cafasso:

This is our first interim response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), dated October 24, 2017.

For this production, DHS reviewed 269 pages of which six pages are released in full, 31 pages are withheld in full and 37 pages are withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(5) and (b)(6). 61 pages are duplicates or non-responsive. DHS has also located and sent 134 pages to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) for review and direct response. The 74 pages for release are bates stamped DHS-001-1344-000001 to DHS-001-1344-000074.

If you have any questions regarding this release, please contact Assistant U.S. Attorney Denise M. Clark, United States Attorney's Office, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, by email at Denise.Clark@usdoj.gov or phone at (202) 252-6605.

Sincerely,

Bradley E. White

(b)(6) -

The videos work great - I had to do some tweaking with the closed caption files, but those are fixed now and working great as well.

As I recall (and please forgive me - there are a lot of these things that cross my desk)... this video is meant to replace the New Employee Orientation Video... correct?

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

I've taken the liberty of creating a new version of that page on DHS.gov that swaps out the videos and assets:

High res: (b)(6)

Low res: (b)(6)

Please let me know if you'd like for me to replace the original orientation video pages with this new one.

After that - (b)(6) - where else should this go? We had a copy of the old orientation video at the top of (b)(6), but we removed it with the change in administration.

You can AMRDEC them all to me - the SRT file IS the caption file.

We have the final files:

File names:

DHS_WorkingToKeepAmericaSafe_720x480.mp4

DHS_WorkingToKeepAmericaSafe_1280x720.mp4

DHS_WorkingToKeepAmericaSafe.srt

Do you want us to AMRDEC all the files to you? Do we need to AMRDEC to (b)(6) and (b)(6) too?

We aren't doing the captioning, you will take care of it, right?

(b)(6)

Do I AMRDEC both sizes or just the larger one?

What do I do with the .srt file? Does this go to (b)(6) for captioning or do I AMRDEC that as well?

Unfortunately I didn't realize he was building HTML pages off of the main DHS.gov (while they have the address, these are just static HTML pages that are built with code and not in Drupal). Since I'm not really sure what he's trying to make, (b)(6) will need to build it. He's out right now giving a presentation, but I believe he will be back later today.

OK - so if you can have both the videos posted on the original page that was used for the first video, the text is as follows - let me know if you have any questions. Once the page is all set we will announce the update through the Human Capital Leadership Council.

New Employee Orientation Videos

These videos were developed to be used at all new employee orientation sessions at DHS.

The first provides a "day in the life" snapshot of the Department and welcomes new employees as they become part of the DHS mission. It should be shown the beginning of orientation.

The second video shows how DHS components work together to keep America safe, and can be shown at a later point in the orientation.

The videos can be streamed or downloaded for viewing. Please see instructions below.

OK - so if you can have both the videos posted on the original page that was used for the first video, the text is as follows - let me know if you have any questions. Once the page is all set we will announce the update through the Human Capital Leadership Council.

New Employee Orientation Videos

These videos were developed to be used at all new employee orientation sessions at DHS.

The first provides a "day in the life" snapshot of the Department and welcomes new employees as they become part of the DHS mission. It should be shown the beginning of orientation.

The second video shows how DHS components work together to keep America safe, and can be shown at a later point in the orientation.

The videos can be streamed or downloaded for viewing. Please see instructions below.

Kirstjen, attached and below is a concept for a DHS Anniversary Celebration beginning on March 1st.

RDML Nunan is leading this effort and is prepared to move forward with the ideas described below.

A proposed S1 message for release on March 1st is attached also. S1's current calendar would support his participation.

OPA would begin new and regular operational updates on the website during this week as well.

If the plan is approved, we would announce next week, urge components and agencies to propagate, and send an invite to the DHS event.

Please let us know your thoughts.

Remarks for DHS 14th Anniversary Celebration
Washington, DC
March 15, 2017

Background: After the event's walk/run, employees will gather in front of the chapel. You will offer brief remarks from the chapel steps using the emcee's wireless microphone; there will not be a podium. After your remarks, there will be a cake cutting ceremony.

Key themes: Reinforcing honor and integrity; demonstrating support for employees.

- T hank you all for coming out to be part of this special celebration.
  - Although our Department is celebrating its fourteenth anniversary, this is the first year we've held this type of event.
  - I hope this is the start of an annual tradition.
- Today, we honor DHS. More importantly, we honor each other.
  - We're often too busy in our day to day lives to stop and think about the significance of what we do.
  - You focus on the little things—the deadline you missed, the argument you had with your boss, how bad the traffic was on the way in.
  - It doesn't help when the media is filled with negativity and criticism.
- But what each one of you do every day is the most important job in America—keeping our country safe.
  - You solve tough problems.
  - You protect businesses big and small.
  - You keep our communities safe.
  - You keep our economy moving.
  - You rebuild towns ravaged by disaster.
  - You make sure first responders can do their jobs—or you're a first responder yourself.
  - You welcome our country's newest citizens.
  - You detect and prevent plots to harm innocent Americans.
  - You enforce our laws—the laws that keep our society together.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

DHS-17-0435-F-000059

- Each of you are outstanding Americans, who choose to give back to your country in a very important way.
    - Honor and integrity are at the heart of everything we do.
    - You are men and women of conscience and character.
    - I am extremely proud of this Department and our mission.
- I am your strongest advocate—on the Hill, in the media, and at every level of government.
    - I believe in our mission, and I have your back.
    - Be proud to serve your country. Be proud to be part of the Department of Homeland Security.
- Thank you for helping build our Department's honorable legacy.
